STATE OF WAR RESOLUTION IS BEFORE HOUSE

Passage is Assured. Debate now on and Action Expected within a Few Hours.

WILL SUPPORT PRESIDENT

President Wilson Must Sign Joint Resolution to Make it Effective.

ASKS BIG APPROPRIATION

Wants almost Three Billion for Army, and almost Three Hundred Million for Navy.

(By Telegraph)

Washington, Apr. 5.—The House today sounded the battle cry to make war against Germany within twenty four hours or less.

Immediately upon convening this morning they went into a "Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union" and this brought up the State of War resolution for debate. Chairman Flood, of the Foreign Relations Committee, opened the debate.

Members of the House delivered speeches fiery with patriotism and calling upon the members to hasten the passage of the momentous resolution.

Some pacifism developed but there is no question as to the ultimate outcome, the support given President Wilson, and the final passage of the measure.

Chairman Flood called up the resolution at 10:15 and the members immediately started to consider it.

President Wilson will have to sign the joint State of War resolution before it is legally and formally effective in acceptance of Germany's war on this nation.

An attempt to have the resolution made a concurrent one, which would have eliminated the necessity of the President's signature, failed.

(By Telegraph)

Washington, Apr. 5.—The Government today took the first active steps in preparation for war.

Secretary McAdoo asked Congress to appropriate $3,400,000,000 for Army and Navy expenses. Secretary Daniels asked that the Navy personnel be increased from 87,000 to 150,000, and the Marine corps from 17,000 to 30,000.

The Army, Secretary McAdoo said, would need $2,932,537,933, and the Navy $292,538,790.

ANOTHER RECRUIT

"Jack" Oden Enlists in the Regular Army.

"Jack" Oden, of Emmitsburg, Md., and a member of Ambulance Company No. 1, Maryland National Guards, has enlisted in the Army.

He liked service so well while on the Mexican border that he decided to enlist for three years.

He will procure his discharge from the national guard and be assigned to some cavalry unit, the branch of the service young Oden prefers.

Dr. Burt Asper, of Baltimore, recently of Aspers, this county, has been spending several days in Chambersburg with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Asper. He will return to enter the United States Navy as a surgeon.

J. Guyon Wierman, of South Bethlehem, spent a day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wierman, of Ardentville, before returning to Philadelphia to be mustered into service with the First Pennsylvania Regiment which was called.

LOST GOOD HORSE

Had Purchased Animal Only Short Time Before.

Three weeks ago Frank L. Miller, residing on the Smith farm near Johns mill site, Oxford township, purchased a pair of fine dapple gray horses, for which he paid $350. One of the animals was soon after seized with fever which developed into pneumonia from which it died on Wednesday morning. Mr. Miller on Tuesday moved from the Smith farm to the former Judge Jenkins farm near Conewago Chapel, vacated by Peter Neiderer, who moved to Midway.

NOTES OF NEWS ABOUT THE TOWN

Short Paragraphs of Happenings Telling of News in and near Gettysburg.

More flags were displayed immediately after the publication in last evening's Times of Burgess Eicholtz's proclamation. The rain to-day halted the observance temporarily. It might be stated in passing that it is not the proper thing to allow the Stars and Stripes to be out between sun-down and sunrise. The colors are supposed to be taken in every night.

Requests for bids for taking the West Point cadets over the battlefield April 30 and May 1, indicate that the war situation is not going to interfere with the annual visit. There will be about 145 in the party.

The banks in Gettysburg will be closed all day to-morrow, Good Friday.

Practically all of the students have gone to their homes or to the homes of friends for the Easter vacation. College will reopen next Wednesday morning, April 11th.

Wheat was quoted at $2.11 at Gettysburg warehouses to-day. Some of the farmers have sold while others are still holding on.

The Presbyterian Primary Sunday School will have its annual egg-hunt on Cemetery Hill Saturday afternoon. The children will assemble at the Sunday School room at four o'clock.

Miss Rosa Scott, a teacher in the public schools, has notified the School Board that she will not be an applicant for re-election.

FIGHT FOREST BLAZE

Mountain Fire Burns Timber; Threatens Houses Across Line.

Fire believed to have been caused by sparks from an engine burned over a considerable section of timberland in the South Mountain and threatened several houses in Upper Holly and was finally gotten under control on Wednesday.

The blaze broke out shortly after noon Tuesday near Red Tank and burned over the hill towards the clay works, and came close to some houses there late in the evening. The majority of the men living there are employed at night and were not at home.

Parties headed by Davis March, Raymond Whitecomb, Boiling Springs and George Wise, Mount Holly, went out and got the blaze under control about four o'clock Wednesday morning.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Mrs. Jennie McIntire will be held Friday morning with brief services in St. Francis Xavier church.

HAS EYESIGHT AGAIN

Blind Woman at Hagerstown Suddenly Recovers her Vision.

Bordering almost on the miraculous, the discovery that she could see after being blind in both of her eyes for several years, came with surprising suddenness to Mrs. James Hull, of near Clearspring, while she was in Hagerstown a few days ago. Mrs. Hull went to that city with her husband and daughter and the revelation came to her while she was in Myers' grocery store, Franklin and Potomac streets.

Harry W. Myers, proprietor of the store, was talking with Mrs. Myers when she suddenly discovered that she could see he was wearing a white shirt and instantly recognized Mr. Myers. In her surprise Mrs. Hull turned to her husband and daughter and said she could see them almost clearly. The incident created a mild sensation. The family returned home later and Mrs. Hull was able to distinguish objects and is hopeful that the return of her eyesight is permanent.

GUARDING BRIDGE

Reading Structure under Heavy Guard. Arrest Two Suspects.

Gettysburg people who have had occasion to go to Harrisburg the past few days over the Reading railroad have been impressed with the manner in which the high bridge over the river is safeguarded against any depredations.

Guards from the State militia patrol both ends of the bridge and are located on it. Searchlights play at night from each end, and the whole structure is lighted underneath and above. The piers are all brilliantly illuminated at night.

Late last night two men were captured at the Reading bridge over the Schuylkill below Reading. They carried dynamite and the necessary apparatus to explode it, and were taken by State militia after the soldiers had fired several shots. The bridge which it is believed they intended to damage is that on the Belt Line by which freight is taken around the city of Reading.

INJURED HAND HURT

Thumb Crushed for Man at Work in Brickyard.

While at work in the quarry at the Carbaugh brickyard, Berlin Junction, Emory Melhorn, of near New Oxford, had the thumb of his right hand severely crushed when it was caught between a stone and a truck as his feet slipped while loading the car. Surgical treatment was necessary. Twenty-five years ago, Mr. Melhorn had four fingers on the same hand cut off while railroaded.

1500 RAILROADERS ARE NOW STRIKING

Some Work Suspended. Shops at Several New Places are Suffering.

The Western Maryland Railroad management reports that a train load of 150 strike breakers came in from Chicago and unloaded in the Hagerstown yards. This brings the force up to about 300 men, or more than one half the regular number. The railroad company states that 85 per cent of the full quota is on the job and that the regular number will be working before the first of next week. Men out deny this and say shops are worse than crippled.

At Elkins and Thomas, W. Va., all the men went out Tuesday afternoon. The walkouts have spread all over the system now, until more than 1,500 men have been affected. Railroad officials admit it will have a hard time replacing all these with outsiders, but will get along anyway for a while, or until some settlement is effected somehow.

The committee also wants to deny the statement that the pickets are becoming lax. There have been rules governing the picketing and each man has been assigned to certain hours in the day and night and at no time have any complaints been made by the pickets, neither is there any tiring on the part of the pickets in doing this duty. The same number of pickets are doing duty on this date as on all previous days during the strike.

It was said by the committee that there are less inlookers or curiosity seekers around the gates of the plant. Some of the best men, previously employed in the shops, are leaving Hagerstown to take positions elsewhere where they are receiving more pay and doing less work, it was stated by the committee.

HOTEL GROWING

Mount Tuscarora Chateau-Heyn Enlarging Plans for Contractors.

Bidders on the proposed Chateau-Heyn on Mount Tuscarora, some sixteen miles west of Chambersburg on the Lincoln Highway, are advised that the extended plans for the great hotel have been still further enlarged and that bids will now be asked for the new addition.

It is proposed to construct an eighteen room addition to the proposed mammoth scheme. The capacity under the new management will reach over two hundred guests. It is probable also that additions will be made to the proposed garage which had already been planned to accommodate over a hundred cars.

TO START FIVE CREWS ON LINE

New Railroad will Begin Building Operations at that Many Different Places.

WORK FROM BOTH ENDS

Price of Steel Does not Worry Promoters of Washington Railway so Much as Shortage of Labor.

No half-hearted measures are to be employed in the work of constructing the new Washington, Westminster, and Gettysburg Railroad, according to W. H. Llewellyn, representing the company, who was in town this week on details in connection with the entrance of the line into this borough. Practically all the rights of way have been secured and the granting of a franchise by the local town council completed all that sort of work.

Mr. Llewellyn stated to a representative of this paper that it was the intention to put five gangs of men at work on the construction of the road. One of these will start at Gettysburg, one at Washington, two at Westminster and one at some other place along the line not yet determined. The two at Westminster will work in opposite directions, the one going toward Washington, and the other toward this place.

Apparently the new company does not regard the price of steel as prohibitive and they do not feel that this effect of the war will hold up construction. The only fear they express is that the impending conflict may make the obtaining of labor difficult. Otherwise construction will be started at the earliest possible date.

The surveying corps—four of them—which have been working for several months along the line have instructions to make a survey permitting cuts and fills that will give the road a maximum grade of one per cent. The road from Gettysburg to Washington would accordingly be practically level the entire distance. Ninety pound rails are to be used and equipment procured which would give the line everything necessary to handle successfully the heaviest sort of freight and passenger traffic.

Mr. Llewellyn is enthusiastic over the prospects of the road. He is delighted with the country through which it is to run and with the reception accorded by the various towns and rural sections along the way. It has been the effort everywhere to please property holders from whom rights of way were desired and no arbitrary method of cutting up any one's land was urged. As a result the advance men have generally earned the friendship of the communities and there has been noticed all along the line a general spirit of co-operation.

The manner of conducting the advance work, and the fact that the financing of the road has been provided for, would seem to make its actual construction a sure thing, provided the war does not interfere by holding up the steel required and by draining the country of its laboring men.

SAVED BY STUMP

Two County Residents Crawl from Perilous Position at Creek.

A stump in Mountain Creek at Holly Park probably saved the lives of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Harbold, of Latimore township, when the steering gear of their car broke Wednesday while they were driving home from Carlisle. Mr. Harbold was driving along leisurely when something got wrong with the steering gear and the car dashed down over a three foot embankment into Mountain Creek.

The car turned turtle but was prevented from rolling completely over by a stump sticking out of the bed of the creek. Mrs. Harbold took loose a curtain and was able to crawl through to safety, and her husband followed very quickly. The water at this point is about four feet deep and had the car turned completely over on its top the motorists would have been pinned beneath. The car was towed to Carlisle where some repairs were made.

HAVE FLAG CEREMONY

Forestry Academy Runs up the Stars and Stripes.

The Pennsylvania State Forest Academy, at Mont Alto, dedicated a magnificent new flag pole on Tuesday afternoon by the raising of a large flag presented to the school by David Knepper. The exercises were very simple and consisted of a reading of the President's message to Congress, followed by the raising of the flag and firing of a salute, and three cheers for the flag and the spirit of the nation.

The former flag pole was blown down in a storm some time since and the new pole has been erected on the slope in front of the school building where it is visible from quite a distance.

$4000 BERTH FOR A. NEVIN DETRICH

Ex-Bull Moose Leader Appointed Chief Examiner in State Insurance Department.

A. Nevin Detrich, of Chambersburg, formerly active in the State Grange, Wednesday was appointed to the post of examiner-in-chief of the State Insurance Department, to succeed William J. Roney, of Philadelphia, appointed manager of the State Insurance Fund. Mr. Detrich's place will pay him a salary of $4000.

It was rumored that he would be named as Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding. But doubts were expressed as to whether he would be confirmed by the Senate. D. Edward Long, of the same county, was then named to succeed A. Nevin Detrich, of Chambersburg, who was asked to resign when the speakership contest began to grow hot.

Detrich will assume his new job at once and will be located in the Philadelphia office of the Insurance Department. Mr. Detrich, who is a newspaperman, has been engaged in publicity and political work.

Insurance Commissioner O'Neil, who announced the appointment, has been working along the same political lines as Detrich. O'Neil also announced that James H. Howarth, of Pittsburgh, brother of Representative W. J. Howarth, of Pittsburgh, had been appointed a clerk in the Insurance Department. George P. Stryker was also appointed a clerk. The jobs pay $1600 each.

PONIES WON RACE

Beat Car in Three Mile Dash. Thrilling Pursuit.

A pair of small western bronchos belonging to W. J. Starry, of Bowler, won out in an unscheduled race with an automobile to York Springs. Mr. Starry was driving along the road above the residence of Edward Spertzel in Huntingdon township, when he noticed the coupling pole rattling and when he got out to tighten one of the bolts the ponies dashed off knocking him down and running over his body in their flight. Fortunately he was not hurt and he dashed after the flying team.

Mr. Spertzel was unable to stop the frantic animals and cranking his car he and Mr. Starry gave chase. Before the men had reached the Idaville road the runaways were out of sight and reached York Springs fully three minutes ahead of the pursuers. The ponies went dashing down Main street in true movie style and were stopped and caught by Constable Pittenturf and Clarence Cline. The bronchos covered a distance of over three miles in less than ten minutes and like their pony ancestors showed little effects of the strenuous dash.

TO BOOST PRICE OF THE AUTO TAG

Buckman Bill, Introduced in the Senate, would Increase their Cost.

OFFER OTHER MEASURES

Various Items of Local Interest Contained in Bills on which Some Action will be Taken.

Two bills of general interest were offered in the State Senate Wednesday. One introduced by Chairman Buckman, of the appropriations committee, increases the price of automobile licenses the state is to get if the bill becomes a law. There is to be no motor vehicle license less than $5, and dealers must pay $15 instead of $10, as now required. It is expected this will add greatly to the state revenue.

Another measure creates a Woman's Country Problem Commission and was read in place by Senator Larry Eyre, of Chester. The commission would consist of six women, to be named by the governor, who would inquire into questions confronting women of the rural districts of the commonwealth. Economics, the problem of securing labor, the development of educational facilities and the management of social centers are the principal topics aimed at. The members are to serve without compensation, but $7500 is appropriated to bear the expenses.

Bills were reported from committee as follows:

Prohibiting the erection of sewage disposal plants within the vicinity of intakes of water works or systems of water supply.

An act to fix the pay and mileage of witnesses and jurors in actions before magistrates and aldermen.

Compelling auditors appointed to audit the accounts of school districts to complete their reports not later than September 1 of each year. Auditors who offend are subject to fine of $5 per day for every day they fail or neglect to file reports.

Vesting in persons appointed by county commissioners as caretakers of public roads the same authority exercised by constables sworn to keep peace along the public highways and to enforce the speed regulations of automobiles on the statute books, a house bill offered by Mr. Gray

PASS WAR ACT

Goes Through Senate by Big Majority.

HOUSE WILL ACT TODAY

Senator La Follette is Called Pro-German in Hot Reply to Attack on President Wilson and the U. S.

Washington, April 5.—The resolution declaring the United States to be in a state of war with Germany was passed by the senate last night by a large majority.

This morning the house of representatives took up the declaration, and it is predicted it will be passed late this afternoon.

It was approved by the foreign relations committee. The vote was seventeen to two.

The debate in the senate continued for sixteen hours, and was the most bitter heard in the senate for many years.

Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, opened the attack on the resolution and during his speech declared that "we are about to put the dollar mark on the American flag" and threw the senate in an uproar.

Senator Williams, of Mississippi, declared that the charge against the edge of treason, and other senators were ally as emphatic.

"It is not giving aid and comfort to the enemies of our country," declared Senator Reed, "I do not know what would give aid or comfort to a Japsburg or a Hohenzollern. If that is not almost treason, it takes on the character and lies so near to treason that the enemies of America can take as much comfort from it as though 10,000 American citizens rose in their homes against the United States government."

Senator Vardaman, Democrat, Mississippi, also opposed the resolution. Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, made a three-hour speech and viciously attacked the resolution. He referred to the president's speech to congress and when he severed relations with Germany, and the one asking for armed neutrality. He said conditions between this country and Germany have not changed greatly since the diplomatic break.

Declaring he became convinced that farming of merchantmen would be wholly futile and a "tore to their destruction," Senator La Follette spoke of how he had been criticised by the executive for opposing the armed ship bill. The president's daughter, Mrs. McAdoo, listened from a gallery.

Senator La Follette read a sheaf of telegrams reporting "straw vote" post card and other polls in various communities opposing war. He declared out of 15,000 or 20,000 letters and telegrams he had received regarding his vote on the armed ship bill, from eighty to ninety per cent had approved his stand. The senator who opposed the armed neutrality bill had been attacked and "scurrilously libelled" in the newspapers, he declared, contrary to the spirit of fairness which once pervaded the nation.

The Wisconsin senator referred to the president's statement that Germany had violated her submarine pledges, and continued:

"Her promises, so-called, was conditional upon England being brought to obedience of international law. Was it quite fair to lay before the country the statement that Germany made an unconditional promise and had deliberately violated it?"

"It was England—not Germany—who refused to obey the declaration of London, containing the most humane ideals of naval warfare which could be framed by the civilized world up to that time. Keep that in mind. "If it is war upon all mankind, is it not peculiar that the United States is the only nation of all neutrals which regards it necessary to declare war upon Germany? All have refused to join in a combination against Germany. Some have a clearer view than we. This suspicion of a desire for war profits does not attach to them."

Senator La Follette said the United States has not the confidence of the other American republics because of its war policies. He predicted that entrance of the United States would not shorten the conflict, "but will vastly extend it by drawing other nations in." It is idle, he declared, to talk of a war on the German government and not on the German people.

Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, in one of the most bitter arraignments ever heard in the senate chamber, characterized the speech of La Follette as pro-German, pro-Goth, pro-Panda and anti-president, anti-congress and anti-American.

During his denunciation Senator Williams said he had expected the Wisconsin senator to defend the invasion of Belgium, and declared the speech "would better become Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg than an American senator."

Senator Williams' attack was so vituperative and bitter that La Follette left the floor of the senate and for several minutes waited in the cloak room while the Mississippian continued the speech.

Senator Hitchcock, in charge of the resolution for the president, in place of Senator Stone, who would not support it, declared that as much as he wished and had worked to avoid war,

SENATOR HITCHCOCK.

The Nebraska senator has been recognized for some time as the official mouthpiece of the administration in the senate. When the president wants to lay information as to his politics or plans before the upper house, Senator Hitchcock, who hails from Omaha, announces it.

he could not vote against the resolution.

Senator Lodge, ranking Republican of the foreign relations committee, pledging the support of the Republicans to the president, called on the government to seize all German ships in American waters to replace those destroyed by submarines, and in passionate terms called on the government not to conduct a "half war."

Chairman Stone, of the senate foreign relations committee, in a brief speech, opposed the war resolution, but pledged himself to do everything in his power to help wage war successfully.

Senator Kirby, Democrat, of Arkansas, who opposed the armed neutrality bill, announced that he would vote for the war resolution "that it may appear that we are together," and because a vote against it, he felt, would be futile. Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, who was among the "wifful men" named by the president for his opposition to armed neutrality, also lined up behind the executive.

Senator Gronna, of North Dakota, another of the "little group of wifful men," announced he would vote against the war resolution.

WANT 20,000 SKILLED MEN

War Department Urges Enlistment of All Trades.

Washington, April 5.—The war department wants 20,000 men of all trades immediately to join the quartermaster enlisted reserve corps.

Rapid promotion is promised to men who prove fit in their particular lines of work behind the fighting front.

The list of trades given brings out sharply the wide range of activities in a modern army. Included are bakers, blacksmiths, butchers, carpenters (pack train experts), carpenters, checkers, clerks, cooks, electricians, steam engineers, farriers, forage masters, horse shoers, horse trainers, laborers, machinists, brick and stone masons, automobile mechanics, motorcyclists, labor overseers, painters, packmasters, plumbers, saddlers, stablemen, stenographers, teamsters, tentmakers, train masters, typewriters, wagon masters, watchmen and wheelwrights.

"It is the intention to select carefully men for these responsible places and give them their rank and position in the enlisted reserve corps now," says a statement issued. "All that is required of a reservist is this: That during a period of four years he shall keep himself physically fit for military service, attend each year if ordered to do so an army encampment for a period of two weeks only, for which duty he will be paid, and present himself for active duty at the proper place in time of actual or threatened hostilities in answer to the call of the president."

"Men who enlist in this service retain their status as civilians and are only required to leave their homes in time of war. Military training as a soldier is not required."

Arrested for Cursing the President. Lincoln, Neb., April 5.—Joseph Kloss, a farm laborer, was arrested at the state capitol on the charge of "cursing the president of the United States and the United States government." He said he only intended to express regret "that the nation was going to war."

Drop Wilson's Address in Battle Lines. London, April 5.—President Wilson's address to congress, translated into German is being distributed liberally over the German lines by British aviators. It is understood the same thing is being done by French aviators.

AUSTRIA TO BREAK

Will Sever Relations With United States.

SETTLED AT CONFERENCE

Emperor Charles, to Make a Peace Statement to the World in the Interest of the Central Powers.

The Hague, April 5.—Austria has virtually decided to break relations with America as soon as the United States declares war on her ally, Germany.

At the conference attended by Emperor William and Emperor Charles and the ministers and generals of the central powers, the correspondent says, the chief subject dealt with was the American situation.

The conference is also said to have received important declarations from Count Czernin von Chudenitz, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, on the possibility of an early peace. The emperor of Austria intends, it is added, to make a statement to the world shortly to that effect in the name of the central powers.

What the Evening News correspondent at The Hague terms an obviously inspired telegram from Vienna to the Frankfurter Zeitung says:

"Germany cannot possibly wish to make peace dependent on the possibility of annexation. If certain German parties should still attempt this it must be made clear that such efforts would find no support in Austria-Hungary."

The telegram to the Frankfurter Zeitung describes the Austrian terms simply as a "guarantee for integrity and possibility of existence, that is in relation to Serbia and Rumania."

Peace Offer to Russia.

Berlin, April 5.—No secret is made of the fact that the recently renewed peace offer by Austria-Hungary and Germany is mainly addressed to Russia.

The Lokal Anzeiger asserts that the Russian people "has repeatedly proved lately that it is in favor of peace by an overwhelming majority."

"Our new offer must convince every body that our peaceful intentions are serious. They are the same in Constantinople and Vienna as in Berlin, which fact will be emphasized by a visit from Austria-Hungary to Berlin of certain persons of exalted rank (the Austrian emperor and empress) within a few days."

Bulgaria Approves Peace Offer.

Sofia, April 5.—Peace overtures of Germany and Austria-Hungary to Russia have been officially approved by Bulgaria. Premier Radoslavoff said in the Sobranje, Bulgaria endorses the statements of both the German chancellor and the Austrian foreign minister.

GERMANS INCITING NEGROES

Federal Agents Confirm Reports of Attempt to Stir Colored Population. Birmingham, Ala., April 5.—Reports that German agents are working in southern states, particularly in the tobacco and cotton belt, to incite negroes against the United States government, were confirmed by local federal agents.

These officials announced that steps already have been taken in this district to prevent effective results from arising out of the activities.

SHIP SINKS U-BOAT

British Craft, in Damaged Condition, Reaches St. John With Tale of Fight.

St. John, N. B., April 5.—The sinking of a German submarine which attacked their ship ninety miles off Queenstown, Ireland, was reported by officers of a British steamship, on arrival here.

In a running fight the merchantman scored a direct hit, officers said, and the undersea boat went to the bottom with all hands. The steamship was slightly damaged by shell fire.

Jail for Assaulting Wilson.

New York, April 5.—Henry Yager, a Maywood, N. J., real estate dealer, was sentenced to six months in the workhouse for having attacked President Wilson in a public speech. "This was the type of character who has taken advantage of free speech," said the magistrate in sentencing Yager. "It is better that this type be subdued."

Seeks Favor for Germans.

Washington, April 5.—A bill to grant American citizenship to all Germans who have lived in the United States five years was introduced by Senator Townsend, Republican, Michigan. Thousands of Germans who have lived in this country a long time, he says, are anxious now to become citizens, but had neglected to take out their papers.

SOLDIERS GUARD STATE

National Guard to Protect Bridges, Tunnels and Industrial Plants.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 5.—Every important railroad bridge, every big terminal, power plant, munitions factory car shop, arsenal and steel plant in the state of Pennsylvania is under guard.

Detachments from the First and Third infantry regiments of Philadelphia and from the Thirtieth infantry, of Scranton, are scattered through the commonwealth, keeping close watch on every strategic point.

No attempt will be made to interfere with the passing to and fro of citizens, engaged in their regular vocations, during the daylight hours. But at night, lines are drawn inside which no one is supposed to penetrate without good and sufficient reasons. No loitering will be allowed near important bridges at any time. High powered searchlights, which will sweep the approaches to all points under guard, will aid the troops in detecting the approach of undesirable intruders.

The Third regiment, commanded by Colonel George E. Kemp, has established headquarters in Altoona and is responsible for the safety of the western end of the state. The First regiment, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel M. D. Brown, is covering the southeastern section of the state, including Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Columbia and up to Reading. The Thirtieth, which has only recently come back from the border and has not been mustered out of the service, is covering the coal regions, companies being on duty at Sunbury, Pottsville, Hazleton, Allentown, Lackawanna, Williamsport and Honesdale.

AT ST. QUENTIN SUBURB

French Troops Reach Outskirts of German Stronghold.

Paris, April 5.—French patrols have reached the southwestern outskirts of St. Quentin, the war office announces.

Fighting continued south of the Ailette. The French made further gains east and west of the Somme.

"East and west of the Somme," says the war office, "our troops continued to make progress over the whole front attacked by us. Beyond Dallon the French reconnoitering parties pushed forward as far as the southwestern outskirts of St. Quentin. Northeast of Castres our troops reached a line south of Gruglea. On our right the village of Mont-Sur-Oise was captured. Everywhere the enemy was subjected to violent artillery fire, especially in the region of Esigny."

"South of the Ailette the fighting was continued on the outskirts of La-faux and in the village, which we penetrated in spite of violent resistance of the enemy over every yard of ground. South of Vauveny German counter attacks were broken up by our fire, which inflicted heavy losses on our opponents."

"We easily repulsed two attacks on small posts, northeast of Prosmes and east of Auberville. There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front."

YORK COUNTY

39 SALES AMOUNT TO $89,622

The place which the farm sales occupy in the business of York county is known by the record made by Ernst & Kohr in their season, which just closed, they having cried 39 sales, at which the total receipts were $89,622.27. Of these, two were household goods sales.

Their lowest sale was $91, and highest $5,735.24. The average receipts at the sales were $2,300. While this was not the firm's greatest season as far as number of sales is concerned, the receipts per sale averaged extremely large. The firm auctioned sales every day from February 17 until March 31, inclusive, with the exception of one day, March 30. Now that the county's season has closed, they have a number of important sales to be conducted in York.

That the sales season in the county in 1918 is to be a greater one than the one just closing is indicated by the fact that the firm has already booked 23 sales for next spring.

An advisory board of 36 men, two from each township, will be appointed within a short time.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

TO HEAD CITIZENS' BANK

The directors of the Citizens national bank, Waynesboro, Wednesday morning, elected a successor to D. W. Hess, deceased, president of the bank. Ezra Frick, vice president, was elected president, and Dr. D. B. Snively was chosen vice president, to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Mr. Frick as president. The advancement of Mr. Frick to the presidency of the bank gives the institution as its head a man of wide experience in industrial and financial matters and one who has the entire confidence of the community.

He is vice president and general manager of Frick Co. and has been a director of the Citizens bank since its organization, serving for a number of years as vice president. He is one of the strong men of the community. The election of Dr. D. B. Snively as vice president is an admirable one. He has been one of the most active of the directors and a financier of established ability.

HEALTH BOARD TO TAKE PRECAUTIONS

Would Give Infantile Paralysis No Chance to Get Start this Summer.

A state-wide "clean-up" as a measure of prevention against a possible epidemic of infantile paralysis this summer has been put under way by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, State Health Commissioner, who is sending out this week a letter of instruction to all local boards of health and health officers, as well as to the more than one thousand men who constitute the field force of his department in its medical and sanitary divisions.

The instructions call for the eradication of all insanitary conditions that might lead to a spread of the disease and go into details as to the precautions that should be taken.

"We must anticipate some poliomyelitis this year and take every precaution in the way of preparedness against it," said Doctor Dixon, in discussing his action to-day, "even though its presence last year did not necessarily mean a severe epidemic this summer."

"We are coming into the season when, through the disintegration of organic matter, much of the new insect life of the year will come into its first stages. It is during this season that infantile paralysis generally appears in epidemic form."

"In preparation, it behooves us not to let any precaution escape our attention. Thus we should enter upon a vigorous 'clean-up,' especially when we keep in mind what excellent results were obtained in last year's epidemic when we went into some of the small towns and showed them how to obtain almost ideal house-keeping."

"For some years the Pennsylvania Department of Health has been working for a preventative that could be supplied in sufficient quantity to fill any possible demand. In this important work, Pennsylvania can report progress."

"We must at the present time rely, however, solely on the results of experience obtained in fighting the disease. And one of the first lessons is that we must keep perfectly clean our houses, out-buildings, grounds, barns, stables and barnyards. Every care must be taken of each water supply, for each one represents a stone in the foundation of preparedness."

"The great move now being taken by the Department of Health is a crusade against filth, not only in the cities and towns and boroughs, but in the country districts. The circular of instructions is being sent not only to our County Medical Inspectors and Health Officers, but to all the Department nurses and stream inspectors as well."

"The State Department of Health, with the Governor standing behind the Commissioner of Health in the work, calls upon every individual and all the local health authorities to push with a strong hand this task of insuring the health of our little children, who will soon stand in our places—and especially at this time when they face the heritage of preserving peace and order in not only our own union of states but perhaps in the whole civilized world."

FARMERS' WIVES SHOULD PREPARE

Says Mrs. Foulke, State Adviser, in Discussion of Present Day Events.

PREPAREDNESS MEASURES

Should Go over the Farm, Fields, and Buildings, to Inform themselves of Conditions.

"It seems to me that every woman living on a farm or having agricultural interest should feel it her duty at this time to do her part in furthering the preparedness movement by studying her environment and surroundings with the idea that she may be called upon to take up and carry on the business of the farm in case her men are called to another kind of national service," says Mrs. Jean Kane Foulke, farm adviser of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. "To this end I feel that all women living on farms should interest themselves actively and at once in any plans for working or developing the farm that her men-folk have in mind."

"Women should go over the farm, the fields and buildings, to inform themselves regarding the conditions of the permanent crops, soil, fences, orchards, etc., the stock, machinery, and general farm equipment. The men should be ready and willing to give such information and instruction. A Sunday stroll taken together over the farm with a pencil and note book in hand where questions can be asked and answered and suggestions made, would be a happy and easy way to obtain and give this knowledge. Even if the future brings no need for women to 'farm like men,' the men and women who have the co-operative knowledge, this mental companionship and understanding of the business of the farm will find that life is richer and the business more easily carried on, because it is a partnership concern where, as in any other honest contract, the minds meet, and where the proverbial saying 'two heads are better than one' is again true."

"The difficulty in getting farm labor has forced many women to help with the farm work, and if farmers of the State are called into military service, the question of who is to feed the nation will become a more and more difficult one, and the women who have the knowledge and training to enable them to take up and carry on the agriculture of the State will be doing as much, if not more, in the defense of the nation of holding her honor and strength as the men and boys who may be sent to the front."

The State Department of Agriculture will be glad by correspondence, personal calls or literature to assist any woman or group of women to fit themselves to meet this possible demand.

WESTERN STATE FOR LARGE CROPS

Nebraska's Acreage for this Year is Largest in History of the State.

Lincoln, April 5—Nebraska's crop acreage this year will be the greatest in the state's history. Whether Nebraska's 1917 crop yield will be the greatest in its history will depend on weather conditions.

The high cost of living, with the consequent high prices paid for farm produce, is in part responsible for the increased acreage.

Only a normal wheat crop is expected. Farmers now say that the wheat is not strong and will require the most favorable conditions from now on to make even a normal crop.

The corn acreage will be greater than last year. Where wheat has been winter-killed the farmers will plow it up and plant the fields to corn.

The high prices brought by garden produce and by such staples as beans, etc., will mean an increased acreage for these also. Included in this list is very likely to be the potato.

One of the effects of the high cost of living which will be seen in cities and towns all over the state will be increased gardens. In the larger cities and towns every vacant lot stands a good chance of being used for a garden.

FIRE DESTROYS CHURCH

A fire of incendiary origin broke out in what is known as the Old Ball's Eye Church for the colored people located in Shippensburg on the top of the old Indian fort about twenty Tuesday morning and completely demolished the building. This was one of the most historic places in Shippensburg and the Civic Club had been contemplating buying this place and preserving the same as the oldest land mark in Shippensburg. About the same time the barn of Robert Yocum was also set on fire but on account of a member of the family discovering it the same was quickly extinguished.

FORTY MILLION ACRES OF LAND

This Amount of Western Territory Waiting to be Taken up by Farmers.

Washington, April 5—Forty million acres of barren land in the west are waiting to be converted into prosperous farms, according to the Reclamation Service of the Interior Department to-day. Soon modern irrigation canals will dot these wastes, supplied by the Reclamation Service from the fund obtained by sale of public lands in semi-arid sections.

Since the service was established 1,500,000 acres of land have been reclaimed and 1,000,000 of those acres are producing crops that will help bring down the high cost of living. Homes have been established on these lands by 30,000 families, and even thriving cities and railroad centers have sprung up where barren wastes existed.

Projects now under way or completed embrace approximately 3,000,000 acres of irrigable land, divided into 60,000 farms. The net investment thus far is about $100,000,000.

In some cases the Reclamation even controls its own reservoirs and coal mines for the people who have moved to the opened territory. This instance is illustrated at Williston, North Dakota, where such a mine has been maintained for five years without the loss of a life. Telephone lines, lighting and heating plants and other public service means are likewise maintained by the Government for the benefit of the settlers.

DULL CLOTHING

Eschew Gay Easter Raiment in Chicago and San Francisco

San Francisco, April 5—Easter Sunday 1917 will be remarkable for the fact that it's observance in San Francisco churches did not consist of a fashion show for the main attraction and divine services as an excuse, if a movement started in Chicago and taken up in San Francisco is carried out.

A coterie of girl members of a Christian Endeavor Society in Chicago started the idea when they decided to keep their fancy Easter bonnets and their new spring clothes in the dark recesses of the family trunk on Easter Day and to devote themselves to the spiritual and not the decidedly material form of worship. In San Francisco the Rev. J. H. Barney, of the California street church, made the first step when he requested that the choir of his church, which is to render elaborate Easter music, come in simple raiment, just to set a good example for the congregation.

THE CITY OF QUEENSTOWN.

It is a Seaport, a Watering Place and a British Naval Station.

Queenstown, numbering slightly more than 8,000 souls, has a threefold distinction—as a seaport, a watering place and a British naval station. It is a well built and attractive place, with a mild climate, and, being built upon an island, its streets rise in terraces one above the other and offer a superb outlook over the neighboring waters.

Within fifty years the place was only a small fishing village and was known as the Cove of Cork. Its present name was received in 1840 by reason of its having been the first spot in Ireland upon which Queen Victoria set foot. It still serves as the port of the city of Cork, from which it is twelve miles distant. Cork itself is located at the point of entry of the river Lee into the bay.

The harbor of Queenstown is splendidly defended by two forts—Carlisle and Camden—at its entrance and by Fort Westmoreland, which is situated upon Spike Island, one of the group of three isles which make up the government dockyard and constitute the fine natural breakwater of the harbor, wherein a large fleet can find safe anchorage.

Two years before the queen's visit to the town Spike Island was made a convict depot upon the abolishment of the transportation scheme of punishment which had been in vogue, and the convicts sent there were employed upon the fortifications. The island ceased to be a prison in 1885, at which time it was handed over to the military authorities.—National Geographic Society Bulletin.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How to Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness, or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

(Medical Advertising)

CATARRH SUFFERERS

Here's a right-to-the-point remedy for catarrh, head colds, clogged nostrils etc., that surely works like magic. No stomach dosing, gargles, sprays or greasy ointments—you just breathe it.

Peoples Drug Store and other leading local druggists who sell a lot of Hyomei every year say they will refund money to any customer of theirs who buys it and fails to get relief.

As you inhale this pure, wholesome medicated air you can almost feel its tonic healing effect taking hold—soothing the swollen, inflamed membranes and tissues, opening up the air passages, clearing out the head and nose and throat.

It allays the inflammation, stops the poisonous secretions, destroys the germs which cause catarrh or money back. A safe, harmless, pleasant inexpensive remedy which any druggist can recommend.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Gettysburg People.

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one kidney medicine that has earned a reputation for lasting results and there is plenty of proof of its merit right here in Gettysburg.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now makes his testimony even stronger.

D. F. Arendt, Railroad St., Gettysburg, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for some years. I had sharp pains across the small of my back and in my sides and had to get up often during the night. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was greatly benefited."

A LATER STATEMENT
On February 14, 1916, Mr. Arendt said: "I never let a chance slip to say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills. I can now say that the cure they gave me has remained permanent. I know of no better kidney medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Arendt has twice publicly recommended. Foster—Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

PLANNING A DRAFT

of 500,000.

MAY TOTAL 3,000,000

First Call Will Probably be For Men Between the Ages of 18 and 23—Rushing Appropriation Bill.

Washington, April 5.—Secretary of War Baker conferred with President Wilson on army plans to be submitted to congress when the war resolution is passed.

The army appropriation bill for 1917, carrying $240,000,000 was passed by the house of representatives in less than half an hour, in exactly the same form as it passed the house at the last session. Amendments to bring the total of the bill to $270,000,000 were ignored in the interest of speed.

Legislation under which an army of a half-million young men may be raised by selective conscription will be presented to congress by the war department as soon as the resolution has been adopted.

Only those between certain ages yet to be announced, possibly eighteen and twenty-three, are to be called and of these, exemptions will apply to married men, others with dependents those needed in war industries and men who fail to show the proper physical condition.

Those remaining may be found more than the number desired for the first army, and another selection would be necessary, possibly by lot. When that army is sufficiently trained and supplied with officers from the regular army, national guard and officers' reserve corps, another quota will likely be called by the same process. Graduation of the first class at the Military Academy on April 29 will supply 12,000 trained officers.

The national defence council is working assiduously preparing the channels through which a steady stream of munitions and supplies may flow for army and navy needs.

Dr. Franklin Martin, chairman of the defence council's medical committee, called attention to the fact that officers of the medical reserve corps are being transferred to the medical officers' reserve corps, making necessary new commissions and new calls.

The present strength of the national guard is 160,000 men, of whom 55,000 already have been mustered into federal service for public purposes of protection, and all the rest of which will be called into federal service almost immediately. The plans of the government contemplate increasing the national guard to its full authorized strength of 440,000 men.

The present strength of the regular army is about 125,000 men. The regular army will be increased as soon as possible to the full strength of 280,000 men. Thus, with 440,000 to be furnished by the national guard system 280,000 to be supplied for the regular army, and 500,000 to be obtained under universal service training, present plans call for raising a force as quickly as possible of approximately 1,225,000 men. As there are now 160,000 in the national guard, and 125,000 in the army, a total of 285,000 men these plans call for the immediate raising of 940,000 additional men.

Senator Chamberlain, Oregon, author of the universal military service bill pending in the senate, says that he is being flooded with telegrams from the west endorsing universal training.

READY TO SEIZE LINERS

Action at New York Expected as Soon as Congress Acts.

New York, April 5.—The Vaterland and other German merchant ships in this port will be seized by the United States government, according to a well defined report, as soon as word is received from Washington that congress has declared a state of war to exist with Germany.

The main question discussed in the German colony at Hoboken was that of the ships. It was said that the government would seize the vessels only to guard them from the work of vandals, and that they would be returned to the German government after the war. That was the contention of one element of the German population. Another element said the vessels would be taken and used and not returned.

LESSONS OF THRIFT.

Learn to Spend Money Only For Things You Really Need.

There are few persons so rich that they do not need to exercise care and forethought in their expenditure. Human needs, human desires, human sympathies, are so vast, occasions of outlay so beset all of us at every step that unless we are watchful we quickly find great resources reduced to nothing, without our knowing how. The speed with which money departs is one of the first lessons of experience to man, woman and child, but we are slow to apply our own experience in our judgment of others.

Every one should be taught from childhood to weigh the needs of expenditure. This I must have, this I can go without, this I greatly want, if other demands still more imperative are not balked by it. By buying this now I can avert the necessity of a double expenditure a year hence. On the other hand, if I refrain from a purchase tempting at the moment I may be glad of my self control, even within a week. Questions like these have to be settled by every human being. Can any training be more important than that which enables us to settle them?

Exactly the same disposition to weigh and to compare must be brought into giving, into charity, if giving is to be discreet and wise and not in the end injurious to giver and receiver both. If we want a useful test for the difficult distinction between avarice and thrift we may say that thrift is more sparing with self than it is with others, whereas avarice pinches others sooner than itself, although it may pinch both.—Youth's Companion.

Germans Cross Stokhod.

Petrograd, April 5.—German troops have forced a crossing of the Stokhod river in Volhynia, after pressing back the Russians, the war office announced. Some of the Russian detachments suffered heavy losses. They had been defending munitions depots, and finding their position serious, they crossed to the right bank of the Stokhod.

Cigarette Causes $10,000 Fire.

New Castle, Del., April 5.—Two houses were destroyed by fire, and four others were damaged. They were part of the Debbins estate, owned in Philadelphia. A man fell asleep while smoking a cigarette, and the burning stub fell on the couch, starting a blaze. Assistance was sent from Wilmington and New Castle to check the flames. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

Liederkrantz Ousts Insulter of Flag.

Lancaster, Pa., April 5.—A member of the Lancaster Liederkrantz, whose name has not been divulged, was expelled from the society at a special meeting for referring seditiously to the American flag, and stamping upon a small banner. President Henry H. Meyer said the society would not tolerate the slightest evidence of disloyalty.

T. R.'S DIVISION BARRED

Officials Say It Would Need a Special Act of Congress.

Washington, April 5.—The offer of Colonel Roosevelt to raise and command a division to be sent to the battle front in France cannot be accepted by the war department, it was learned.

The only way in which the division could be treated is through a special act of congress, and officials declare such a course would encourage politicians all over the country to seek similar honors. To the great detriment of the army.

T. R. Has Nothing to Say.

New York, April 5.—Colonel Roosevelt, informed that officials at Washington had held that his offer could not be accepted, said: "Is that so? Well, I have nothing to say."

PHOTOPLAY

Harold Lockwood & May Allison

"THE MASKED RIDER"

A five part METRO wonderplay. It is a strong, vital story of the mountains, dealing with a desperate gang of moonshiners before they are rounded up by the government agents. Mr. Lockwood, in the dual role of a country parson and the mask rider, is responsible for breaking up the band. And in so doing wins the heart of "the flower of the mountain", the delightful role essayed by Miss Allison.
